2.3.3: Issues Raised and Resolved in the Mentor System

The University has a mechanism to provide personal attention to individual students for the holistic development of the students admitted in various programs of study. In this system students raised many personal and academic issues pertaining to them, details of a few of them are given below:

Issues Raised by the students in Mentor-Mentee System:

- Career-related queries
- Competitive examination preparation tips and guidelines
- Teaching-related issues like performance in Mid-term examination and internal assessment related activities
- How to manage the workload and peer pressure to perform
- Guidelines to complete the live projects, group discussion, experiments, presentation etc.

Issues resolved in Mentor-Mentee System

To continuously monitor the progress of the student and issues raised by them, the university adopted the following measures:

- Allotment of mentors to each student at the beginning of the first semester duly notified by the Head of the Department.
- Special time slots are provided to address the issues of the mentee in the notified time table.
- Teachers interact with the mentee as per the allotted time tables to identify and address the issues of the students.
- Teachers identify the slow and advance learners based on continuous assessment of their mentee.
- Teachers also counsel the mentee in these sessions towards their career progression and helps the mentee to explore the career opportunities.
- This system also helps students to complete live projects and experiential learning activities.
- One-to-One interaction sessions are also conducted to address some of the personal issued of the students
- Special games and activities like Yoga sessions are organized to overcome stress related issues.

Tutoring, coaching and mentoring list of Students

There are many ways of assisting students who need extra help to maximise their learning outcomes. One effective way of doing this is for teachers and other adults to work with students one-to-one or in small groups in a tutoring, coaching or mentoring role. Teachers may provide extra teaching or tutoring before or after school or at lunchtime.

Tutoring, coaching and mentoring list of Students

There are many ways of assisting students who need extra help to maximise their learning outcomes. One effective way of doing this is for teachers and other adults to work with students one-to-one or in small groups in a tutoring, coaching or mentoring role. Teachers may provide extra teaching or tutoring before or after school or at lunchtime.
