

Report: Viksit Bharat@2047 Vision

The Department of Journalism & Mass Communication conducted the successful initiation of the Viksit Bharat@2047 vision. This groundbreaking initiative is designed to mold the future of nation, and we are delighted to have witnessed the enthusiastic participation of our students in the inaugural event. The event aimed to unveil the ambitious vision for Viksit Bharat@2047 and engage students in discussions regarding their pivotal role in contributing to this monumental initiative.

Event Overview:

Event Name: Vision of Viksit Bharat@2047

Date: 12th December 2023

Time: 3:00 PM

Venue: Classroom 204

Student Participation:

The students participated with great enthusiasm, demonstrating a profound understanding of the subject matter. Many had already gained insight from the Prime Minister's inaugural speech the previous day, providing them with a background and a sense of purpose for the event. Their receptiveness and eagerness to contribute over the next 25 years were palpable.

Key Takeaways from Student Engagement:

National Aspirations: The students expressed a strong desire to see India as a top-ranked nation globally. Their aspirations included placing the country among the top three economies, emphasizing the need for sustained economic growth and development.

Community Involvement: Notably, students exhibited a keen interest in not just individual success but also in uplifting their communities. They expressed a commitment to inspiring and involving people in their neighborhoods to contribute collectively towards the vision of a developed India.

Communication Skills: Students recognized the significance of effective communication in translating the Prime Minister's vision to the grassroots level. They acknowledged the role of communication skills in conveying the essence of Bharat Viksit and considered it essential for making the vision a reality.

Conclusion:

The successful launch of the Viksit Bharat@2047 vision event showcased the commitment and enthusiasm of our students. Their insightful ideas, coupled with a strong sense of national pride, promise a bright future for India. As we move forward, the Department of Journalism & Mass Communication is excited about facilitating more events and activities that will harness the collective power of our students towards the realization of this visionary initiative. HoD Dr. Archana Katoch thanked students for taking part in the event and aligning with national aspirations.
